

National Museum of EDUCATION

In Partnership for America's Future™

The National Museum of Education is the new home of education for America. This Museum, in Akron, Ohio, enshrines and archives the history and great achievements of education. It also honors the contributions of outstanding educators and students, and recognizes teacher and student excellence both past and present. As proud Americans, the National Museum provides a location and a gathering place for anyone who has passed through the halls of American schools and has been educated at any level. The Museum offers a welcome environment for reuniting those who have benefited from the educational process in any way—classroom studies, counseling, tutoring, coaching, or lifetime learning. This Museum will be a training site where America's finest teachers and administrators will share techniques and ideas.

The Honorary Registry of Those Who Have Made a Difference in Education

The Honorary Registry of Educators

...honors American educators, including teachers, counselors, tutors/mentors, librarians, principals, superintendents, and any certificated United States educator who has made a difference in the life of a student. The educator to be honored must have taught, coached, or administered in a public or private educational institution with a valid state level teaching certificate.

The Honorary Registry of Higher Learning

...honors any college professor, dean, college or university administrator or any instructor in a post-secondary institution, who has made a difference in the life of a student.

The Honorary Registry of Support Staff

...recognizes anyone who has contributed to the educational process i.e. home school teachers, secretaries of schools, custodians, cafeteria workers, library aides, cafeteria workers, etc.

The Honorary Registry of Students

...honors any student who has made a positive difference in someone's life.

The Honorary Registry of Champions of Education

...will include anyone who has made a difference through exceptional efforts in furthering education. This Registry is voted upon by a Selection Committee of nationwide educators.

This Registry may be used for personal tributes, dedications, memorials, to honor a friend, relative or colleague. It may also be used to celebrate a holiday, special occasion or retirement. This type of donation may be made in lieu of gifts. The Honorary Registry allows you to provide a 100 word tribute to the honoree. This Honorary Registry will become a legacy for education and will be archived in the National Museum of Education. The tax-deductible donation to register an individual in the Honorary Registry is $25, or $35 to include a photo. Your donation will help to insure that the student, teacher, and administrative programs of the National Museum of Education, the home for anyone who has been a part of the American educational system, will grow and endure.
